
Business Licensing Accreditation Program

Master in Business Licensing Proof of Points Earned

A completed and signed "Proof of Points Earned" form shall serve as verification of points earned for the MBL. Applicants are responsible for having the form signed as appropriate for each point or set of points earned and are required to submit forms with accreditation applications as verification of the information submitted in the application. Applicants will keep all signed proof forms and attach them with the MBL application. Access a blank form on the SC Business Licensing Officials Association webpage.
